Part 2: Identifying Conflict of Interest

Review your answers on Page 1, and choose the applicable answer:

☐ I have checked “no” to all of the questions above. Do not submit this form unless you are in a position at the level of: SL1, SL2, SL3, ML1, ML2, or M5 who reports directly to a member of the Executive Leadership Team. If you need to know your position level, consult your manager. If you fall into this Senior Leader group, proceed to Parts 4 and 5.

☒ I have checked “yes” to at least 1 of the questions above. You have a conflict of interest. Proceed to Parts 3, 4 and 5.

☐ I think I have a conflict of interest that is not captured by the above questions. Proceed to Parts 3, 4 and 5.

If you are unsure whether you have a conflict of interest, discuss with your manager or contact complianceofficer@ahs.ca for advice.

Part 3: Conflict of Interest Disclosure

Provide details about your conflict of interest. At a minimum, the details should include, as applicable, a brief description of your AHS role, the full name of your outside employer or your outside business, a description of your outside employment, role, or activity, and the full name of any family member working at AHS, as well as their position and department. Attach a Word document if additional space is required.

AHS Role: Enterprise Architect, Alberta Health Services

Outside Business Name: Stealth EA (sole proprietorship)

Nature of Outside Business:

Stealth EA provides Enterprise Architecture advisory services and thought leadership focused on Enterprise Architecture best practices. The key activities are

* promoting Enterprise Architecture good practices based on industry standards like The Open Group Architecture Forum (TOGAF), the Business Architecture Guild, and the Object Management Group (OMG).

* Articles on LinkedIn and

* Applied good practices hosted on the www.stealthea.com web site.

Part 4: AHS Representative Acknowledgement

I understand that:

1) The AHS Conflict of Interest Bylaw applies to me and that the AHS Conflict of Interest Bylaw is available to me on Insite and at www.ahs.ca/eco.

2) I have an ongoing accountability to notify AHS of any changes to the answers I provide in this form.

 3) I am required to submit this form every two years to Ethics & Compliance if I have a conflict of interest to declare. If I am a Senior Leader, I am required to submit this form every year to Ethics & Compliance, regardless of whether or not I have a conflict of interest to declare.

I understand that:

- 4) The information I have provided is accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge.
- 5) I will not use AHS resources, including technology, equipment, communication platforms, social media, logos/branding, confidential information, or work time to benefit my outside employment, self-employment, outside activity, volunteering, board activity, or political activity.
- 6) I will not use my AHS role for purposes that could benefit or be perceived to benefit myself or a family member. For example, this could include, but is not limited to:
 - a) Referring AHS patients or clients to my private practice or business (or that of my family member);
 - b) Promoting my business or that of my family member to co-workers, patients or clients;
 - c) Influencing AHS decisions that may financially benefit an organization or business with whom I or my family member have a relationship;
 - d) Providing confidential AHS information to any person, organization or business who is bidding or thinking of bidding or similar on an AHS contract or AHS work.
- 7) Neither myself nor a company that I or my family member owns, controls, or manages can provide consulting or professional services to AHS while I am an AHS employee or while I am an AHS Board member (exception: does not include services for clinical care, clinical support, or medical administrative leadership).
- 8) I will avoid situations where I have a direct or indirect reporting relationship with my family member. I have indicated below the steps I will take to manage this conflict of interest.
- 9) Additional steps I will take to manage my conflict of interest:
Attach a Word document if additional space is required.

All Stealth EA activities are conducted independently and are clearly separated from my AHS employment by using the Stealth EA brand and related infrastructure. Work produced through Stealth EA is not attributed to Alberta Health Services. The business operates outside of my AHS work hours and does not utilize AHS resources, information, or intellectual property.

Additionally, neither of these channels will publish any health care case studies. All examples will be in other industries like Financial Services, Retail Food Services, etc. The business operates independently and is marketing outside of Canada into the United States and the European Union.
